POKER RUN RULES & REGULATIONS

Sponsored By: Performance Boat Center and Midwest Boat Party

The following rules and instructions are provided for your information. Please read them carefully. Your adherence to these rules and instructions will make this event flow smoothly and safely, and failure to do so may result in disqualification in some cases.

1. Attendance at the morning drivers meeting is mandatory.
2. The speed limit for all poker runs and regattas at the Lake of the Ozarks is 60mph.
3. The Support Our Troops Poker Run is NOT a race. Our goal is to put on a safe event to raise money for these worthwhile charities.
4. No passing of the Pace Boats until the Pace Boat releases you. If you pass the Pace Boat before being released, you will be disqualified and forfeit all of your poker hands and those of your passengers.
5. Boats must maintain a distance of 100 feet from other boats while under power.
6. Crew members should wave arms overhead when coming off plane to notify following boats that you will be slowing.
7. PFD's (life jackets) are to be worn by each person in the boat during the poker run.
8. Lanyards and kill switches are to be used during the poker run.
9. Registration stickers for the poker run are to be displayed throughout the event.
10. Arm bracelets are not to be removed until after the event is over Saturday night.
11. Card turn in starts at 3:30pm and ends at 6:00pm. The only exceptions: Equipment failure or assisting a fellow boater on the water. Poker run officials must be notified by 6:00pm of Participants name(s) and Boat.
12. Each card station is to be considered a "NO WAKE ZONE"!
13. NO CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOL by the driver of each boat during this event. If the driver is caught drinking during this event he/she and all passengers will be disqualified and forfeit all of your poker hands.
14. NO ALCOHOL is to be consumed in the boats by the crew while the boat is participating in the Poker Run Event.
15. You may purchase additional cards (limit 2 per hand) at the registration table before turning in your tally sheet. This can only be done when all five stops have been completed and you return to register your poker hand.
16. In case of a tie, the top three hands will be paid. If more than three hands tie, an absolute 5-card re-deal among the parties will be dealt to determine the order finish. All decisions by the judges are final.
17. No refunds or rain checks will be given; the poker run goes on rain or shine.

As a participant and driver in the above stated event, I have read and understand fully the rules and instructions printed above. If I do not follow rules, my passengers and I will be disqualified and forfeit our poker hands. It is my responsibility to inform my passengers (who have purchased poker hands) of these rules and instructions.
